

Author Contributions

Eduardo led data collection and preprocessing, and contributed to refining model training through targeted edits and improvements. Anabel was responsible for training the models, conducting evaluations, and analyzing results. Teyana conducted the SHAP analysis and literature review, compiled the final project notebook, and contributed to critical revisions. All authors collaboratively reviewed and edited each section to ensure clarity, rigor, and coherence across the manuscript.